Description:	Tom will lead students in creating a unique painted art piece rich in texture, layered color, and sophisticated design. He will share some ideas and techniques for combining acrylic paints, textured compounds, various papers, and offbeat found objects. As a design teacher, Tom will also share his composition principles, design ideas, and new ways to use your art materials to add heightened impact to your mixed media creations.
Instructor Bio:	Tom Cabezas is a Mineral Point wood-worker and mixed-media artist. He has been designing and building unique quality furniture since 1991. With a background in sculpture and a deep respect for craftsmanship and detail, Tom strives to create work that does not attempt to place form over function or function over form. His work has been shown nation-wide and has won numerous awards. Tom earned an MFA in sculpture from UW-Madison. His work can be seen during the regional Fall Art Tour at his Mineral Point studio (www.fallarttour.com/artist/3).

*This workshop is in conjunction with the Wisconsin Regional Art Program (WRAP) on display at Rountree Gallery from October 15 – November 19. WRAP is open to non-professional artists age 16 and older. WRAP entry deadline is September 31, 2011. For entry form or more information contact Rountree Gallery at (608) 348-6719, email rtgallery@yousq.net or visit our webpage at www.platteville.org (under City Departments).
