On 10/25/25, I, Officer Nick Eddinger, was working as a uniformed patrol officer for the City of Platteville, County of Grant, State of Wisconsin.

At 1700 hours dispatch advised there was a female in the lobby who had someone violate a restraining order. Upon arrival I spoke with the female who I found out was Anna C. Pirrie. Anna said she had received a message on Telegram, which is a messaging website. She stated she was on her way to Nashville and said she was near Stoughton when she noticed the message on Telegram. She said she turned around and came to the police department. To report the incident.

I asked Anna to show me the message, and to send the message to my work email. The message said it was from an account tied to the phone number provided by Anna. I asked dispatch to look up the number; it was tied to Courtney P. Jansma, Anna's ex-boyfriend.

Anna had informed me of the history of domestic violence between Courtney and herself. Anna said she was fearful Courtney had come to Platteville and was stalking her at work. I asked where she worked and she said she worked at the Kwik Trip on Water St. Sgt. Kris Purkapile said she looked for the vehicle with the license plate reader cameras and said she had not seen a vehicle matching the description of Courtney's vehicle. Courtney's vehicle is a 2018 Ford Mustang bearing Iowa Plate CHA0S. I asked Anna if she would like a police officer to look through her apartment building. Anna said she would. I walked through the apartment building and Anna's apartment, and I saw no person matching Courtney's description. I looked around the surrounding area and did not see Courtney or his vehicle.
