Residents, Council Members, Commissioners, and City Manager Kurt,

2017 was a year in which the Police Department addressed several significant technological issues. In conjunction with the Sheriff's Department we updated the City's 911 phone system. We also upgraded our call logger which records much of the incoming and outgoing radio traffic and phone calls around the PD. Finally, we took part in the adoption of the Shoretel phone system along with the rest of the City Departments.

We also made considerable progress with updating and revising our policy manual. We have begun daily testing on our policies with short 2-5 minute scenarios which help ensure that our people understand and grasp the critical points of our policies. In 2018 as we continue to update our policy manual we will also be beginning the process of seeking accreditation for our Department. This will be a lengthy, complicated process but if we are successful, it will help ensure that we are using the best practices in the field of law enforcement and it will significantly enhance the professionalism of the Platteville Police Department.

If you have questions after reading the pages that follow, please contact me at the Platteville Police Department at 608-348-2313 or via e-mail at mckinleyd@platteville.org.

Sincerely,

Doug McKinley
Chief of Police

The Platteville Police Department has revised and updated its Mission Statement and its Department Values. This was accomplished by a group of Department employees led by Sergeant Andrea Droessler and Sergeant Kris Purkapile. The group was assisted and received input from a community member who is also on the Police & Fire Commission. The Mission Statement and Values will be used to guide the actions and priorities of the Police Department. The Goals as listed below will be reviewed mid-year and at the end of the year to gauge our progress and to determine if they are still viable priorities or if the community has other issues which require the focus of the Police Department.

Mission:

The members of the Platteville Police Department are committed to providing a high quality of life and safe community for all its members through quality police services while still upholding the rights of all.

Values:

Human Life: We believe nothing is more valuable than human life. We will defend it to the very end using the minimum amount of force necessary.

Integrity: The integrity of our department will not waiver.

Professionalism: We shall serve the community with the utmost respect.

Continuous Improvement: Through training, education and interaction with the community we will continuously improve the services we provide.
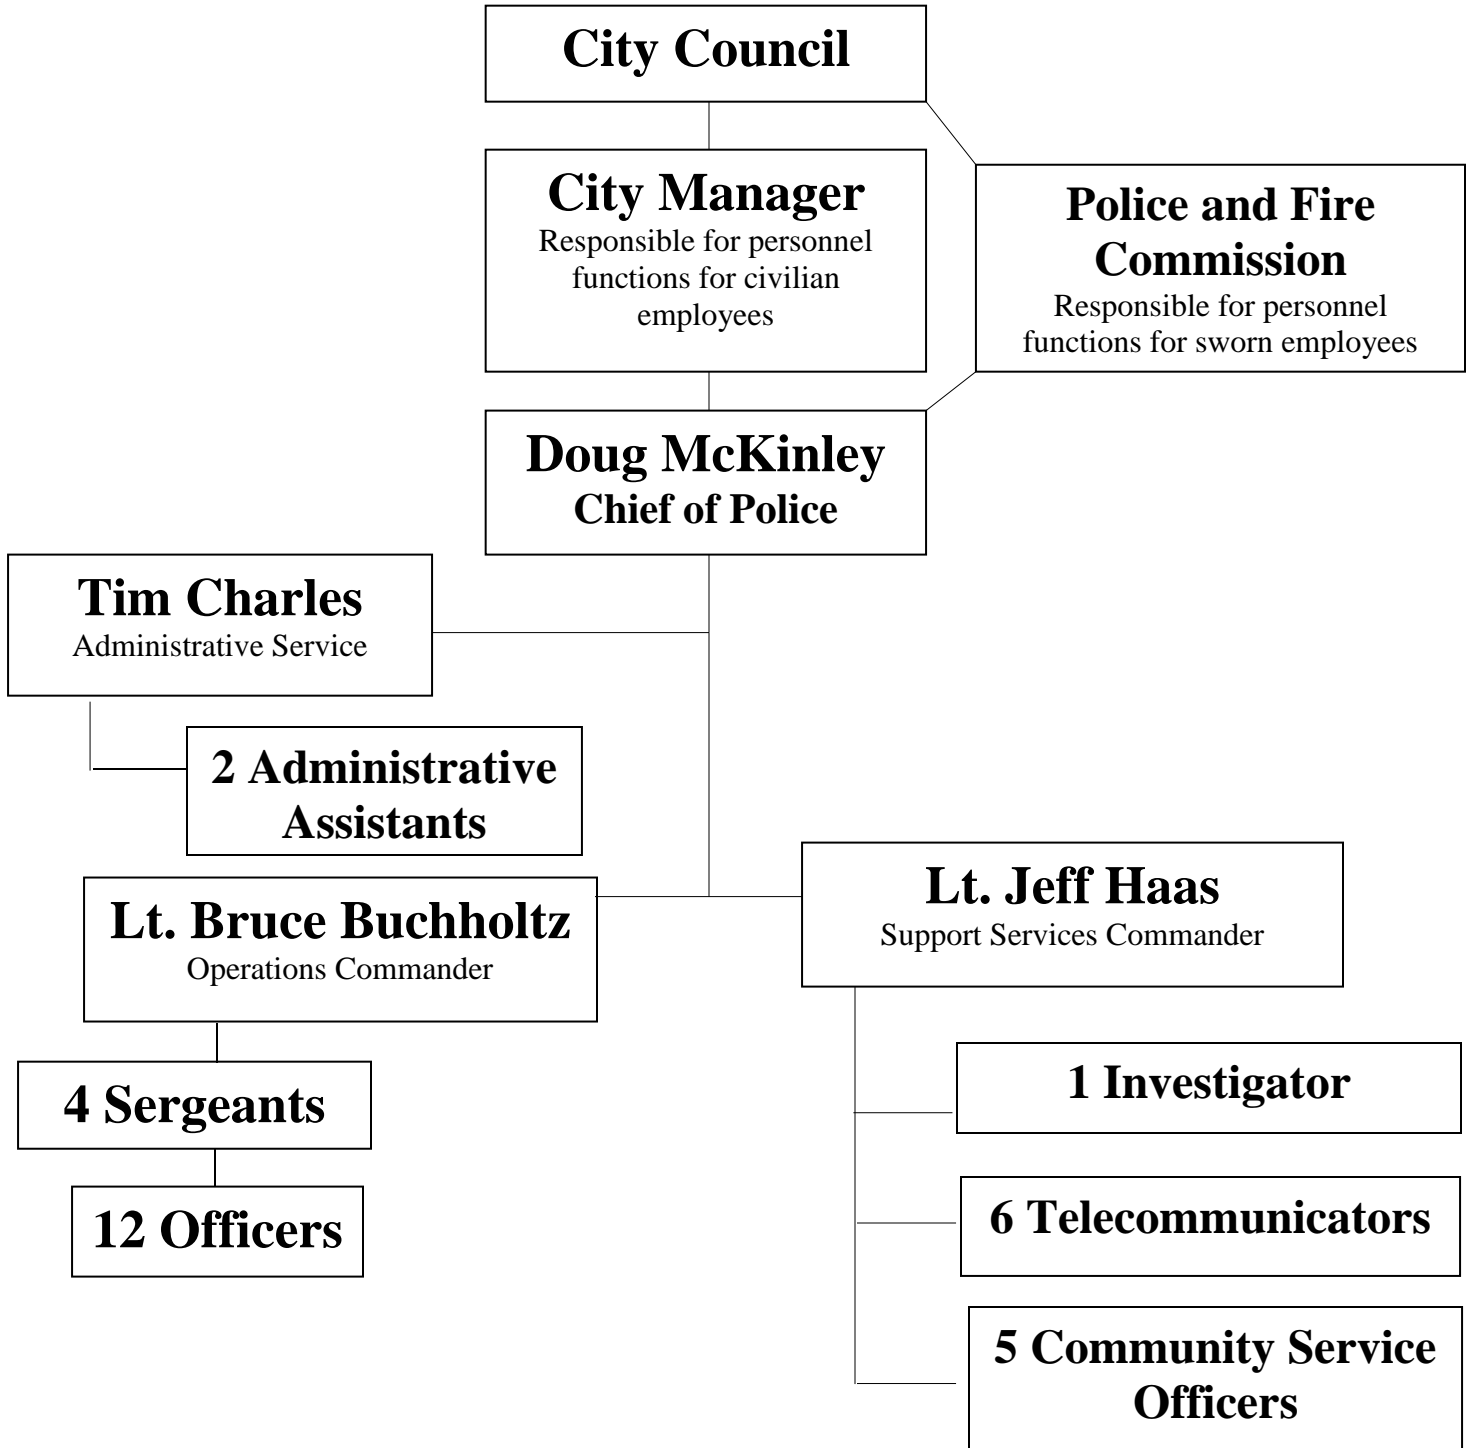

Goals:

1. Improve the quality of life for community members, which will be measured by a reduction in complaints by 15% per year.
*Quality of life complaints refer to calls of nuisance noise, public intoxication, open intoxicants, littering, public urination/defecation, criminal damage to property, theft and calls for service.

2. We will be proactive in preventing crime through increased communication and education with the public. This will be measured by a reduction in reports of crime by 10% and an increase in the identification of suspects and closed investigations.

3. We will increase safety for the community, and visitors, on our roadways through education and enforcement of traffic laws. This will be measured by a 10% reduction in crashes on City streets.
